¹ Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him.

For scourging, the man was stripped of his clothing, and his hands were tied to an upright post. The severity of the scourging depended on the disposition of the lictors and was intended to weaken the victim to a state just short of collapse or death. After the scourging, the soldiers often taunted their victims.

Crucify Him!”...³³ When they came to Jesus, they did not break His legs since they saw that He was already dead. ³⁴ But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and at once blood and water came out....³⁶ For these things happened so that the Scripture would be fulfilled: Not one of His bones will be broken. ³⁷ Also, another Scripture says: They will look at the One they pierced. [Zechariah 12:10], “Then I will pour out a spirit, of grace and prayer on the house of David and the residents of Jerusalem, and they will look at Me whom they pierced.”

That he will come is as certain as morning; he will come to us like the rain, like the spring rains that water the earth.
